A TIME FOR REFLECTION

In the last couple of weeks our fellow countrymen continue to suffer in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy. It is difficult, if not impossible, to imagine the loss of life, the place called "home" and seeing the familiar neighborhood reduced to piles of water-soaked debris. Yet, every day, moms and dads, brothers, sisters, cousins, neighbors and friends somehow find the courage and grace to continue to pick up the shattered pieces of their lives.

As we in beautiful Arizona anticipate a Thanksgiving celebration with our own loved ones, I know we will all share in offering a prayer for those across the country.

Sincerely,
Colleen, Curtis and Mitzi
